J032: JOURNAL OF SHOULDER AND ELBOW SURGERY

Dear Customer,

Welcome to your Elsevier journal. Did you know that your subscription includes full online access to both current and back issues for the duration of your subscription? To claim full text access you must first be a registered user of our journals platform, HealthAdvance. Please follow the instructions below to register and claim your access:

Step One: Register on our journals platform:

- Visit www.healthadvance.com
- Select the appropriate Journal title
- Click the "Register and Claim Your Subscription" option appearing under the Register link in the upper right hand corner of the page.
- Choose to "Register an Account"*
- Enter your personal information and select "Register"
- The next screen will confirm registration is complete and present the option to "Continue where you left off"

*If you have previously registered, enter your username and password and click "Log In"; skip to Step Two, Claim

Step Two: Claim access to your subscribed journal:

- On the Claim Access Page, enter your Subscription Number and Last Name as they appear above, and then click "Activate Claim"
- The next screen will confirm activation is complete and you are done!
